HALLOWEEN MOVIE

Boo! To start our Halloween weekend, the dorm students watched a Halloween classic, a Michael Myers movie.

This wasn't any ordinary Myers movie, though; it's the newest installment of their franchise, Halloween Ends.

The night was full of fun; all the students got the spooks from not only the movie but from scaring each other before the jumpscare!

Lots of popcorn, snacks, and sodas were provided.

It was a great experience and a fantastic start to one of the best weekends of the year!

PUMPKIN CARVING

Our pumpkin carving event was great, and we wanted to share its inspiring story.

Students put their knives and creativity to work, transforming ordinary pumpkins into jack-o-lantern masterpieces.

There were a few creative mistakes, but that's what makes it more fun, right?

Thanks to Jay, who was a great DJ for the day, the energy was high, and everyone was eager to be the first place and to win a Wawa gift card.

Pumpkin guts flew, laughter echoed through the carving zone, and spooky creations lit up the night. It was a fantastic evening of teamwork and artistic expression.
