CONWELL-EGAN RESIDENCE HALL

Conwell-Egan dormitory students wish a happy and joyful time to family and friends during this wonderful holiday season!

The students had a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday with their friends and host family! Please check out the November newsletter!

Neshaminy Mall

The dorm students went to the Neshaminy Mall in Bensalem. There was a variety of stores, so it was good for students who usually do window shopping. Students went to almost every store and then had Chick-fil-A for lunch. The mall was not crowded, so they could wander through it leisurely. There was a movie theater in the shopping mall where the students could watch a movie. Neshaminy Mall is close to the dorm and students can easily get there.

Thanksgiving

The dorm students celebrated Thanksgiving, the second most beloved holiday in the United States, a little early on November 21. Steak, salad, and rice was served for Thanksgiving dinner. After dinner, the students learned the origin of Thanksgiving, and then got to know each other a little more by doing Kahoot quizzes made by every student. Jiwoo Kim, the student who got the highest score, got a prize!

Princeton University Campus Tour

▲ At Blair Hall

The dorm students went to Princeton, NJ for the November college tour.

Princeton University is one of the IVY league universities and is the fourth-oldest institution of higher education in the United States. The school is known for its top-quality teaching and tight-knit student community. Students in the classes are motivated and the professors are all experts in their respective fields. It is also known for social sciences, engineering, biological and biomedical sciences.

The students started the tour at Nassau Hall, the oldest building at Princeton University. Since it was during Thanksgiving break, there were few students on the campus so the students had a good chance to walk around and get to know the school. All the buildings are old but still look beautiful. The dorm students had such a good time there, hanging out and taking some pictures together.

MEALS

In November, we had these foods at the CEC dorm!

The Dining Service at Conwell-Egan residence hall provides tasty food and good service. We meet the wide range of tastes and meal preferences for the students.

Conversation Partner

Every week, the dorm students are welcome to have a conversation with Mrs Schwartz through zoom. Students usually talk about their daily lives and improve their communication skills.

Mrs. Schwartz has a love of language and enjoys explaining slang and idiomatic expressions. Speaking with her for the dorm students is a great chance to improve their English.

Global Ambassador Program

Conwell Egan Dormitory has Global Ambassador Program. Students work on a volunteer basis to serve as liaisons between the current Conwell Egan community and prospective students. The Global Ambassador's main job is to be a helpful, friendly face for the new freshmen students. In addition to it, its main duties include being a mentor for two international students from around the world every year.

This program aims to inspire students to dream big and think global. By being involved with the Global Ambassadors Program, students will heighten their awareness of their place in the world and their ability to make positive change.
