American Dream Mall

American Dream Meadowland is the second-largest shopping mall in the United States. It is 3.01389 million square feet, and there are 33,000 of parking spaces as its remarkable dimensions. If you visit here for the first time, you must be overwhelmed by diverse stores and millions of people inside with full of excitement.

We had almost 5 hours of free time to explore the various stores in the mall and to enjoy entertainment options such as ice hokey, Nickelodeon Park, and some special events which are held that day. Additionally, we each got $20 budget for dinner. The time flew by so quickly in the mall that it felt like we were living the American Dream, just as its name suggests!
