HOST FAMILY UPDATES

On February 26th, we had a professional video crew come into the Lansdale office to film a promotional video for AnB Education. On February 28th, we visited host families to film them for the video, as well. The video will be available to view soon; stay tuned!

EVENT UPDATES

- In Pennsylvania we hosted a spring orientation for all of our new students. It was a great success and a lot of fun!
- Tammy took the students shopping at the outlet malls.
- The students in the Philadelphia area went ice skating and to a car show in Philadelphia with Tammy.
- The students in Massachusetts went snow tubing with their local coordinator.
- The Local Coordinators conducted school visits and filled out school visit reports for each student.
- Happy Chinese New Year!

Upcoming Events:

- Tammy will be taking her students on a tour of Princeton University, the fourth oldest college in the United States and an Ivy League school. The students are very excited about this visit!
- Beware of the weather! It has been very cold lately. Although it will start to warm up, the students will have to watch for ice when they are walking outside.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

- Please fill out your monthly reports!
- If your student is traveling outside the country, they must contact NEXT in order to get the proper paperwork filled out.
- When travelling anywhere for a night or more, please contact us in order to determine whether or not you must fill out a "Travel Release" form.

THINKING OF BECOMING A HOST PARENT FOR THE 2015-2016 SCHOOL YEAR?

Hosting an international teenager is truly an experience of a lifetime, as it is an opportunity to learn about a new culture as well as teach someone about your own.

We greatly encourage anybody who is considering hosting for the upcoming year to apply. If you are already a host family, we would appreciate your support in spreading the word about our organization. Thank you for your
