General Information

BASIS Curriculum Schools rank among the best schools in the United States. According to the 2018 U.S. News & World Report “Best High Schools” national rankings, our five eligible schools ranked #1, #2, #3, #4, #5, #8, and #14 in the nation, out of more than 22,000 eligible high schools. We are also the only network to have four schools included in The Washington Post “Public Elites” list this year, an unparalleled accomplishment. The Post also creates a rankings list called “America’s Most Challenging High Schools,” where one of our schools was ranked #1 and four others were in the top five. In Brooklyn campus, 52% of BASIS Curriculum graduates were accepted by the Top 50 Colleges and Universities in the United States. BASIS Curriculum students

Community

The Brooklyn area on the edge of Manhattan is one of the five largest districts of New York City. Brooklyn plays an important role in American culture, including literature, film, and drama. The local landmark Brooklyn Bridge was built in 1883 and is one of the oldest bridges in the United States. Around Brooklyn is Williamsburg (a hotbed of independent music and art), Coney Island and its amusement park. Other tourist attractions include the Brooklyn Botanic Gardens, Jamaica Bay Wildlife Refuge, Prospect Park and the New York Transit Museum.
