Flint Hill School, founded in 1956 and reorganized in 1989, has been created and shaped through the years by a blending of constituencies. The faculty and student body are encouraged to experience the joy of learning and growing in a community of many members and to appreciate the riches of the diverse environment of the Greater Washington Area.

TESTIMONIAL

The campus of Flint Hill is very nice and well-maintained. The buildings are sturdy, windows are cleaned, grass is green and parking lot is litter-free. College prep and guidance is fabulous and you always see friendly parents walking the halls.”
