Marist High School is a Catholic, college preparatory, co-educational school, inspired and motivated by the charism of St. Marcellin Champagnat, the founder of the Marist Brothers. The School creates a community of lifelong, faith-filled learners who are prepared to take their places as enlightened, educated members of a complex, diverse society. Marist's commitment to excellence fosters the development of mind, body, and spirit through a partnership of families, faculty, school board, and staff by offering a curriculum, infused with Gospel values, that challenges an academically diverse student body.
